

Two incidents over the past week

by Eden Chipperfield
July 30, 2026 12:15 pm

The rescue from July 28, 2026 is shown. (JDFSAR/Facebook) Credit: Juan de Fuca Search and Rescue/Facebook

Over the past week, Juan de Fuca Search and Rescue responded to two separate incidents of calls for help from hikers in Sooke.

On the afternoon of July 28, a hiker was rescued in East Sooke Regional Park after suffering an ankle injury.

Juan de Fuca Search and Rescue (JFSAR) responded to the call, where medical assistance was provided, and the team carried the hiker out on a stretcher.

“Our subject was in social media post.

Subscribe to our notifications for the latest news and updates. You can disable anytime.

d JFSAR in a

“Thanks to all those

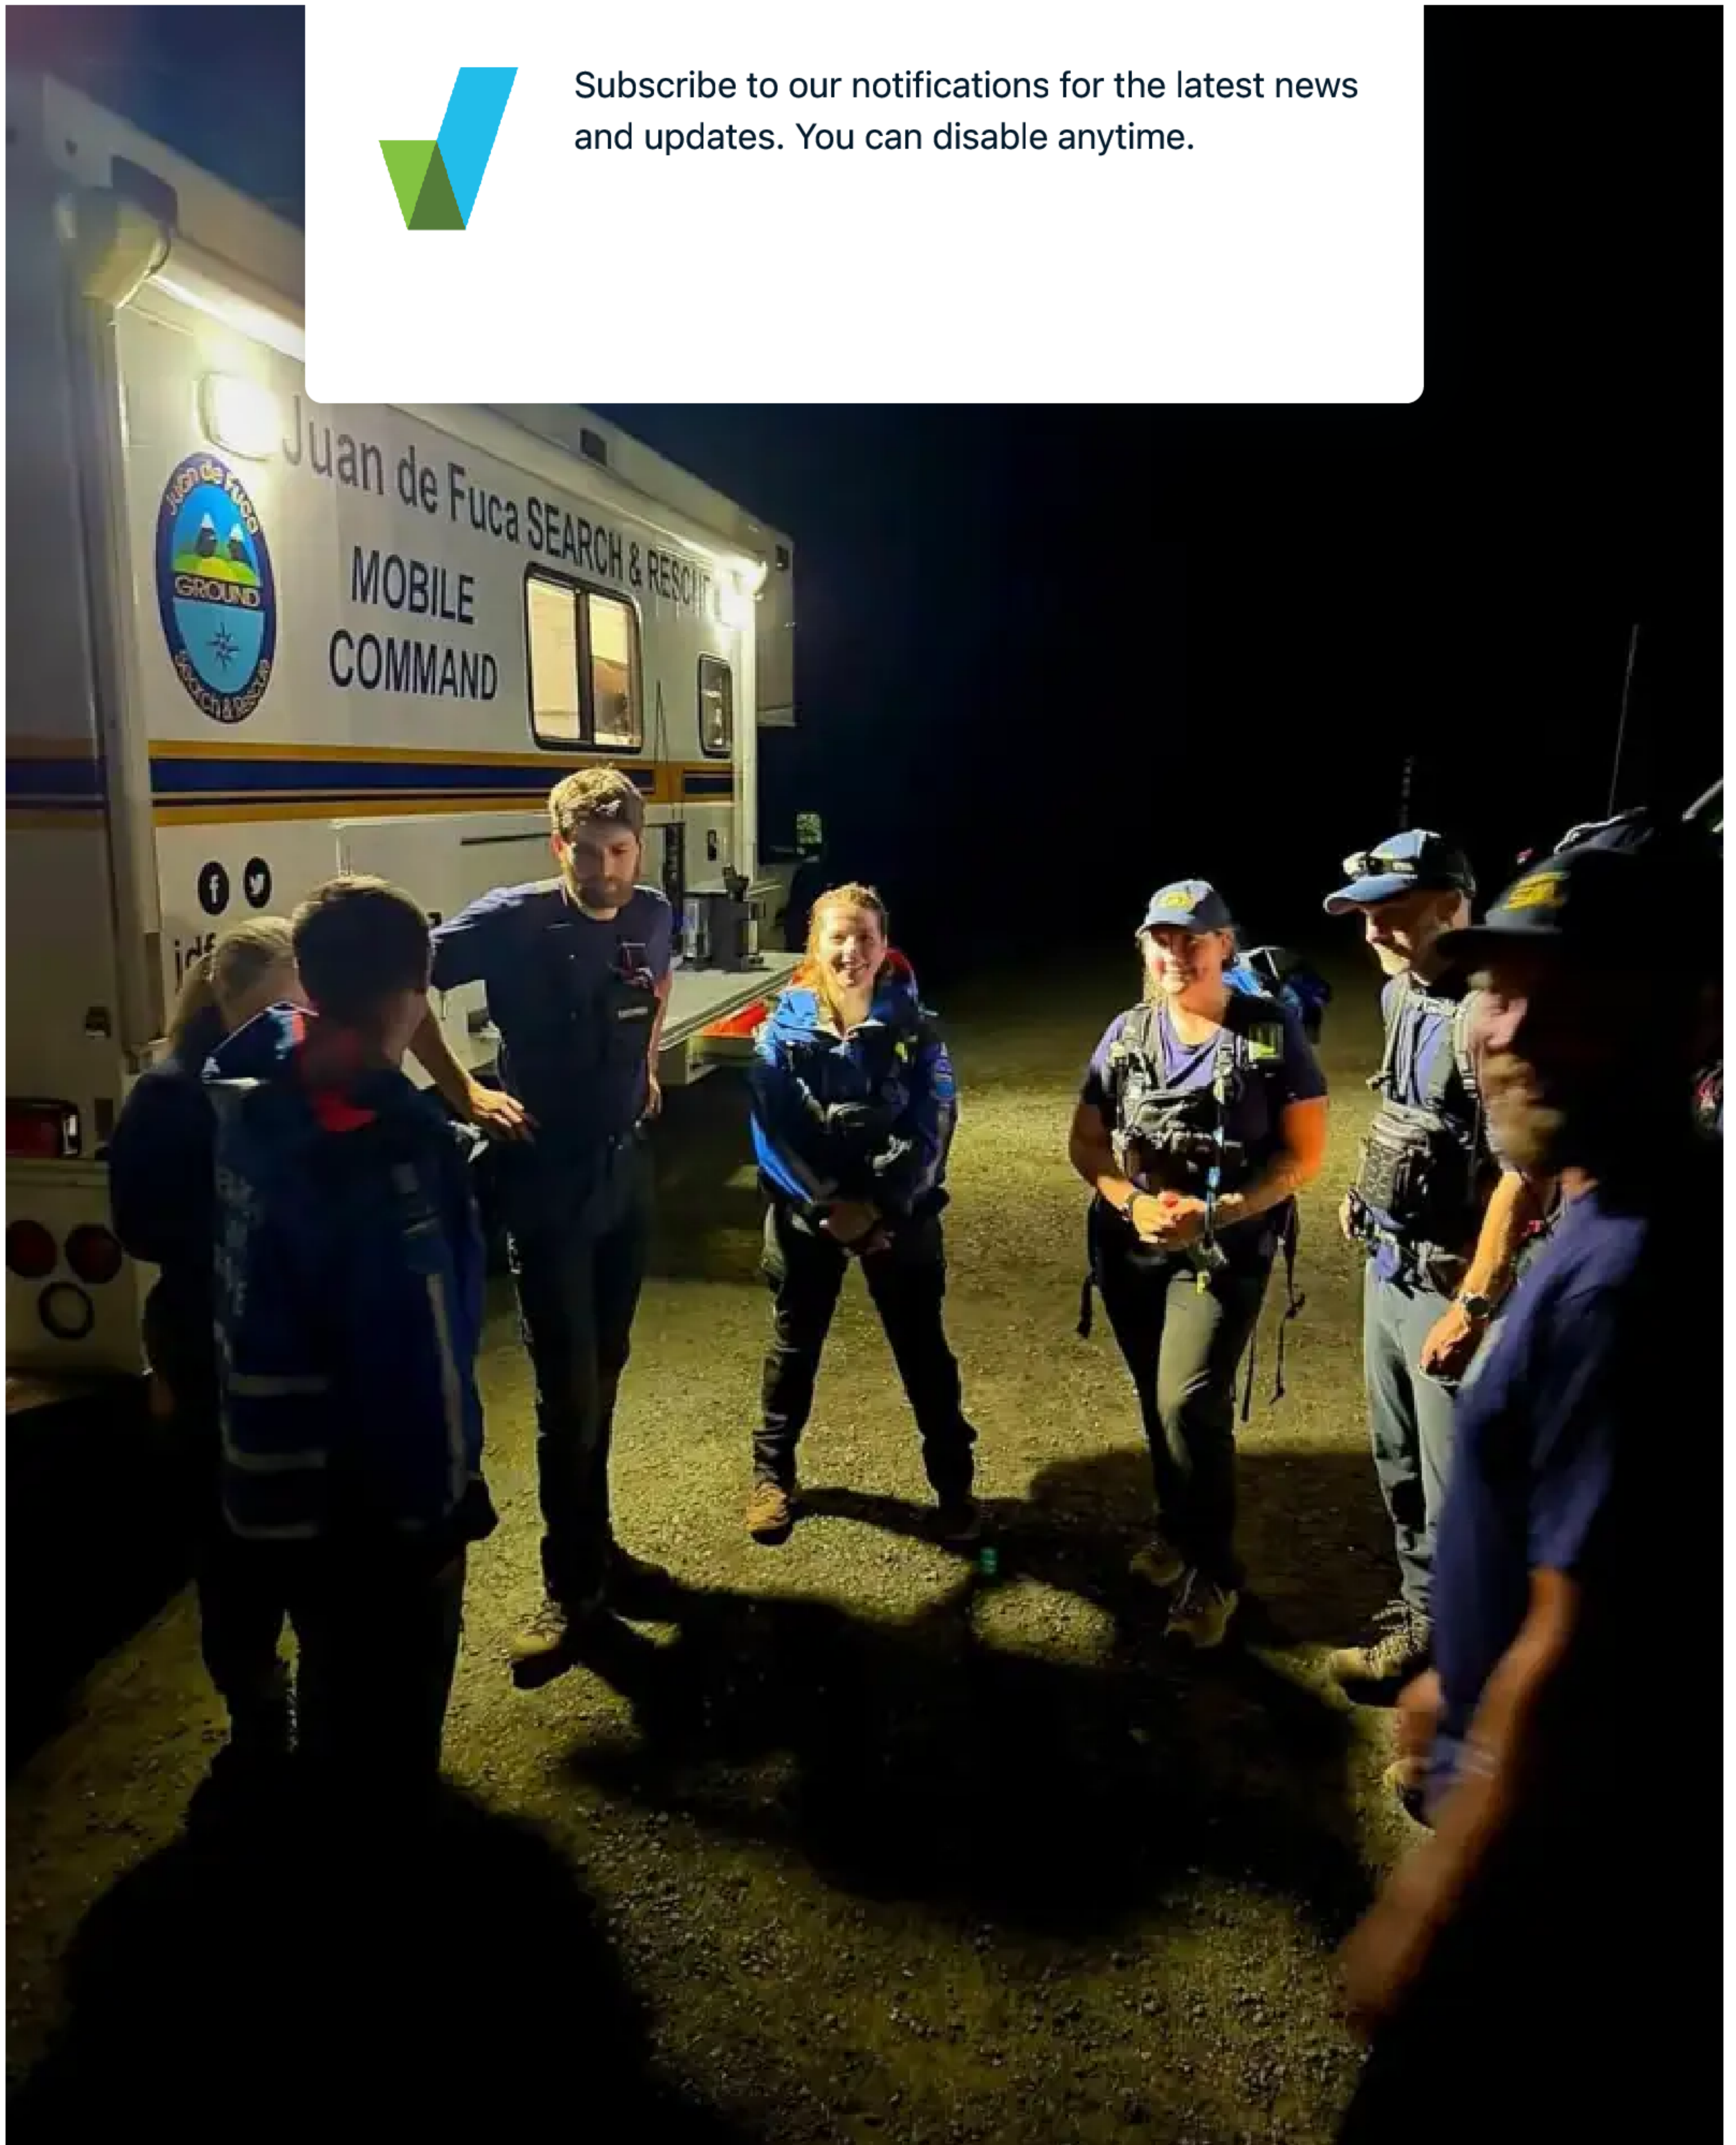

On July 24, JFSAR
Regional Park in Sc

ing the Sea to Sea

JFSAR says the hikers got turned around because of the park’s intertwining trail system. The hikers called for help and sheltered until the JFSAR team arrived.

Subscribe to our notifications for the latest news and updates. You can disable anytime.

The rescue from July 25,

In a social media post, search and rescue teams

Map coordinates can be downloaded on the

Subscribe to our notifications for the latest news and updates. You can disable anytime.

dinates to help

ones, or are

READ MORE:

- ‘It can be daunting’: Hikers caught in the storm on the West Coast Trail
- Alberni Valley SAR crews assist in searches, rescues across region

